

Family Gets Trouble Plus, with Rash of Accidents, Sicknesses

By MARY WEBB

Eric Berg, father of Mrs. Thorsten Burman, of 315 Calle de Andalucía, who with his wife is currently visiting here from his home in Seattle, was involved in an auto accident last Friday, Oct. 21, and was taken to Harbor General Hospital.

He and Mrs. Berg had traveled south to help with the Burman children and home when Mrs. Burman went to the hospital recently with her illness.

Georg suffered a concussion when the car he was driving collided with another auto driven by a Wilmington resident. After treatment at the hospital he was transferred to San Pedro Community Hospital where his daughter is also a patient. Latest reports say he'll stay there about 10 days before returning to the home of the Burmans.

Two couples, the Jim Greers, 142 Via Alameda and the Pat Patronyskys, 740 Calle de Arboles, went off ocean fishing last week aboard the Patronyskys' boat. They were accompanied by the Greer's nine-year-old son, Gary.

From Patronysky's boat berth at Long Beach Harbor, they traveled far asea, catching 15 fish during the trip. The week previously, the two men and Patronysky's 75-year-old father made the trip, bringing back 38 fish on that haul.

Of interest to all citizens is the newly revised map of Hollywood Riviera, including all streets and house numbers of most lots. The new map includes even those homes now building down by the Riviera Beach Club.

It shows too, the future Torrance elementary school to be built in that area. Cmdr. William A. Mason has these maps, and you may secure more information and/or the maps by phoning him at FR 5-2822, or by dropping by his home at 204 Via la Circula.

Last Saturday the Mariner Girl Scouts were invited to a "before the mast" ceremony given by the Porto de Oro Mariner ship from Redondo Beach. A dance was held afterwards at Malaga Cove auditorium from 7:30 'til 11:30, and attended fully by the Mariners of both ships. Local Girl Mariners are sponsored by the Riviera Sportsmen's Club.

A note to those many new residents whom we are told do not know we have a temporary church located here. It is St.

Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church, and is located temporarily at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Avenue I in the Riviera Village. Rectory is at 280 Via Linda Vista. Mass is celebrated on Sundays at 7, 8, 9, 10:15, 11:15 and 12:15.

Farewells go to Mr. and Mrs. William L. Simpkins and children, who moved recently from their home at 430 Via Pasqual. Simpkins is a pilot for American Airlines and a recent transfer saw the family uproot and move to Nashville, Tenn., leaving about two weeks ago. The Simpkins have three children, Billy, 12, Ann, 6, and Joe, 9.

Mr. and Mrs. John Flynn Jr., of 355 Calle de Andalucía, have been entertaining an out-of-town guest recently. She is Mrs. E. J. Jommett, of Chicago, mother of Mrs. Flynn. She stayed here a week before returning to her midwestern home.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Huskamp, of 113 Paseo de Granda, spent a recent week end high up in the High Sierras, north of Bishop.

They tried for deer, but reported on return that their luck ran short—no deer. The Huskamps report it was still a nice trip and a restful time—deer or no deer.

Jim Jones, 237 Via Alameda, returned recently from a hunting trip into Los Molinas country in northern California. It turned out too hot for deer, so he quickly converted the trip to a fishing trip. Jones spent about 10 days in the northern country, rod, reel, and resting. And to prove it, brought home plenty of the finny specimen to grace the Jones' dining table.

Many local persons profess being in the complete dark as far as the meanings of their street names go. We feel it's worthwhile to know these names and meanings, especially when relatives and friends visit from the East and start asking questions. It's surprising what a literate effect you'll have when you casually drop: "Camino del Campo? Why of course, that means road of the level field!" So here's part of our list of streets and their meanings:

- Via Alameda . . . tree-shaded road.
- Via los Altos . . . the high road.
- Via Bonita . . . lovely road.
- Paseo de la Concha . . . shell drive.
- Via la Circula . . . circular road.
- Avenida Atezada . . . black avenue.
- Via Anita . . . Anita road.
- Calle Cabrillo . . . street of Cabrillo (explorer).
- Via El Chico . . . the little road.
- Camino de la Costa . . . coast highway.

Watch for more street names and their meanings next week. Mention these to your friends and neighbors, if you wish. The complete list of streets and meanings should prove a worthwhile thing to collect and keep. No telling when Easterners will show up, you know.

Entertaining are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hughes, of 303 Calle de Andalucía. Hughes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hughes, of Skokie, Ill., stayed with them ten days before returning to their Skokie home. The Hughes are new residents, having moved here just six months ago from Chicago, Ill.

Chris Knierlem, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Knierlem, 324 Calle de Andalucía, celebrated his fourth birthday yesterday with a small group of his young friends and neighbors. Guests at his birthday party were Davy Hughes, John and Pat Flynn, Cindy and Sandra Shattuck.

Brownie Troop 216, under the leadership of Mrs. Clarence Connelly, 133 Via el Chico, will hold investiture ceremonies on Friday, Nov. 18 at 8 p.m. Mrs. Connelly reported this week. The troop has had two meetings so far, and must hold two more before being eligible for the official ceremonies. A large mirror will symbolize the Brownie pool, Mrs. Connelly said, and the little girls will gather round their "magic pool" and officially become full-fledged Brownies. Co-leader of the troop is Mrs. Gregory Schiller.

Twelve girls make up the new troop—Mary Jo Connelly, Patricia Ferrell, Victoria Hajek, Ann Marie Jones, Ann Linhart, Margaret Linhart, Lucy Moore, Catherine Pollard, Nancy Reamer, Kathleen Russell, Mary Catherine Schiller and Mary Ellen Walls.

Lovers of mystery and comedy found a mutual point of agreement in the Hampton Players' production "Love from a Stranger," currently being staged at Redondo High School Auditorium. It will be given again this Friday and Saturday, Nov. 4 and 5 at 8:30 at the same location.

"Love from a Stranger" builds from a first act of light comedy through to a building finale of suspense and terror. And the capable cast of Riverans and South Bayans left its audience well satiated each evening.

Von Hershey, playing the role of the stranger who answers a rental advertisement shows adroitness in his role as he builds to a horror ending.

Pat Rogers, no stranger to good performances, pleased the audiences with the ease with which she handled the feminine lead. In fact, the entire cast showed a fine polish.

Ethel Dugan, as "Auntie Loo-Loo," established her light-brained part with surety from the beginning. Dorothy Tunis handled her part as the sympathetic room mate to the heroine with masterfulness, while Bruce Wilson, as the steady British fiance, did exceptionally well with his part. Hel . . . an Eustace assistin . . . for other Riverans, turn . . . in fine performances as the country maid, Ethel, showing good understanding of her part, while Rivieran Jim Wilson as Dr. Gribble, handled his role with high degree of professionalism. The play was directed by Thelma Ledwidge, with Trudy with opening nights. By final ed from a desert-rat type business-vacation trip to Palm Springs and Palm Desert. Pelt Prices A farm-raised mink pelt brings an average price of about $25. The Jack Webbs just return-
